The wedding of Miss Dolly Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Livingston, of Dolfield avenue, to Mr. Randolph Abrams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Abrams, of this city, took place August 2 at the Tifereth Israel Congregation.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white satin dress embroidered with seed pearls and carried a Bible covered with orchids.

Mrs. Milton Pushkin was the matron of honor. She wore a blue lace and net dress and carried American beauty roses. Miss Phyllis Tralish, maid of honor, wore a lilac net dress and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Dr. Richard Schindler was the best man.

When the couple returns from their wedding trip they will reside in this city.
